

Chris van Uffelen

Malls & Department Stores

BRAUN

- ↑ | Restored area, new gourmet restaurant zone
- ↗ | Different shopping levels
- | Canopy roof, provides a weather-protected area

Town Center El Rosario

Mexico City

Town Center El Rosario is a shopping mall located in Azcapotzalco, north-east of Mexico city. The shopping center is vertically developed with three commercial and three basement levels. The space is governed by a central axis or atrium where the most important flows are developed. The shops and anchor stores are located around the atrium, with the particularity of having an anchor department store built right on top of another. Town Center El Rosario is one of a kind in Mexico. In addition to its blend of contemporary and 17th-century architecture.

Address: Avenida El Rosario 1025, Aquiles Serdan, Colonia El Rosario, 02100 Azcapotzalco, Mexico City, Mexico. Client: confidential. Completion: 2012. Gross floor area: 178,500 m². Estimated visitors: 30,000 per day. Additional functions: cinemas, lake, museum, park, skating rink, soccer field, sports center.

↑ | Exterior view, at night
← | Restored area, museum and dining

↖ | Site plan
↓ | Interior, glass roof ensures that plenty of light is drawn into the mall

